

Spring 2009 Capstone Opportunity

myaamiinsaki myaamiaataweeciki

A Miami youth language experience

The IMS program and Department of Communication are offering a unique cross-listed capstone experience to support the preservation and implementation of the rich cultural heritage of The Miami Tribe.

Students will have the opportunity to design and create an interactive language learning program for Miami Tribe families. As part of the preparation for this unique experience, students who are accepted into the capstone will be required to complete a 1-hour credit/no credit independent study about the Miami Tribe to be offered in the fall of 2008.

Students will also get an opportunity to work directly with tribal educators and visit the Miami Tribe in Oklahoma.

Interested? Pick up an application at any of these offices:

210 Laws (IMS Program)

123 Kreger (Myaamia Project)

120 Williams (Mass Communication)

162 Bachelor (Dept. of Communication)

IMS 440 / COM 411

Students currently enrolled in the IMS thematic sequence program and/or students with special interest and background in early childhood education, language education, multimedia design, or multi-cultural studies are especially encouraged to apply.